

THE JURY

Art Prize PORT HEDLAND 2023

The Jury Art Prize is Western Australia's most innovative regional art prize. Providing a platform for artists to tell authentic stories of regional WA communities to Australia and across the globe, the Prize offers a diversity of opportunity and career acknowledgement. Utilising unique ways to connect audiences with the finalist artworks, geography knows no bounds in providing accessible ways audiences can connect and engage with the very best artworks from regional WA.

The Junction Co. and Courthouse Gallery+Studio are excited to announce the finalists of The Jury Art Prize 2023, and warmly invite you to the official exhibition opening. This year, the curated art prize exhibition is showcasing 40 artworks from artists working across regional Western Australia, culminating in an exciting show of unique perspectives.

These finalist works reflect the exceptional creative talents that continue to grow and thrive in regional and remote WA. Finalists were selected from across all regions, and include painting, photography, sculpture and mixed media from both Indigenous and non-Indigenous artists.

The prize will be judged by industry experts, artist Abdul-Rahman Abdullah, PICA Curator Sarah Wall and Curator of UWA Art Collection Gemma Weston.

There are four key prize categories which include: The Judge's Prize, $10,000 ; The Jury Prize (People's Choice), $10,000; Kathy Donnelly Encouragement Award, $3,000; and Patron Award supported by the Town of Port Hedland, $3,000.

Scan the QR code located under each artwork to vote for The Jury Prize. Voting closes 27 July 2023.
