
THE JURY ART PRIZE 2024

TERMS + CONDITIONS

The Jury Art Prize or the Judges may, at their discretion, not award any Prize Money. The decisions of The Jury Art Prize and the Judges are final, and no challenges will be permitted.

These terms and conditions constitute the agreement between the artist and The Junction Co. governing entry into The Jury Art Prize (TJAP).

Throughout this document, 'TJAP' refers to both The Jury Art Prize and the Gallery representatives, as the context dictates.

By submitting a completed entry form, the artist agrees to comply with these terms and conditions and assures that all information provided in the entry form and during the prize is true and correct. Once the artist has submitted the entry form, and it has been received by The Junction Co., it will be considered a legal document. It is the responsibility of the artist to ensure that the entry adheres to all local, state, federal, and indigenous laws.

The Junction Co. reserves the right to amend these terms and conditions and the entry form at any time, providing notice to the artist. Notice of amendments may be given in writing or verbally notified.

The artist's continued involvement with The Junction Co. will be regarded as acceptance of any changes to these terms and conditions.

The Junction Co. holds absolute discretion in determining whether an artist or artwork has satisfied the entry terms and conditions for TJAP.

The Junction Co. reserves the right to revoke the award of any prize money (and any associated privileges) to a finalist and may grant it to another finalist if the original finalist provides false information in the entry form or during the prize or fails to comply with their obligations under these terms and conditions.

The Junction Co. or the Judges may, at their discretion, choose not to award any prize money. The decisions of The Junction Co. and the Judges are final, and no challenges will be permitted.

LIST OF PRIZES

The Judges' Prize

$10,000, Monetary non-acquisitive prize.

The Jury Prize (People's Choice Award)

$10,000, Monetary non-acquisitive prize.

Kathy Donnelly Encouragement Award

$3,000, Monetary non-acquisitive prize for emerging regional WA artists.

Patron Award: Sponsored by the Town of Port Hedland

$3,000, Monetary non-acquisitive prize for artists residing in Port Hedland or South Hedland.

All prize money will be paid to the artist within 21 days from the conclusion of the exhibition.

ELIGIBLE ARTISTS

The submitting artist must be aged 18 years or over.

Immediate family members of the Prize Judges are not eligible to enter TJAP.

There is no limit to the number of submissions an artist can make. However, each submission must consist of only one artwork. Separate online entry forms and entry fees are required for each artwork.

Only one artwork can be selected from each artist for the prize.

The artist must ensure that the artwork is original and does not infringe the copyright, moral rights, or other rights of any third party.

The prize is open to artists residing in regional Western Australia, including Gascoyne, Goldfields – Esperance, Great Southern, Kimberley, Mid-West, Peel, Pilbara, Southwest, and Wheatbelt.

ELIGIBLE ARTWORK(S)

The artwork must have been undertaken and completed by the artist in the 12 months immediately preceding the closing date for entries on April 4, 2024.

Artworks entered the prize must be available for display and purchase for the duration of the exhibition, which is scheduled between 18 May, 2024, and 19 July, 2024.

Artworks that have been sold or exhibited elsewhere are not eligible for inclusion.

The artist must provide details of the medium used in the artwork on the entry form. In case of uncertainty about the medium used, the artist must contact The Junction Co. for clarification.

Entries will not be accepted if they require gallery staff to assemble or construct any artworks.

The Junction Co. reserves the right to reject an entry if the material, subject matter, presentation, or method of production is considered unsuitable for the purpose of The Jury Art Prize.

All expenses incurred in the submission of the entry are the responsibility of the applicant.

ARTWORK SUBMISSION CRITERIA

The artwork must adhere to the following specifications:

- Not exceed 180cm in either length or width.
- Wall-hung artwork must not exceed 8kg and must be framed (a stretched canvas is considered framed) and fitted with D rings at least 100mm from the top of the work.
- Sculptural works must not exceed 15kg in weight.

Finalists selected for The Jury Art Prize must allow their works to be reproduced by print and electronic media for advertising and promotion of the exhibition and inclusion in the exhibition catalogue.

The Junction Co./Courthouse Gallery+Studio reserves the right to determine the most appropriate method for displaying works.

If the artwork does not arrive as displayed in the image submitted in the registration form, The Junction Co. reserves the right to reject the artwork and exclude it from the exhibition.

ENTRY/ADMINISTRATION FEE

For each artwork entered, the artist must submit a separate entry form, accompanied by a separate entry/administration fee of AUD$33 (including GST).

Entry/administration fees are non-refundable.

Payment of the entry fee must be made via the online submission form.

SUBMITTING YOUR WORK INTO THE JURY ART PRIZE

Entries open on 4 December 2023, 4PM (AWST) and must be submitted by 4 April 2024, 4PM (AWST).

1. Artist contact details;
2. Artist retail price;
3. Image file of work submitted ;
4. Images must be jpeg format only (300dpi, 2MB);
5. Each file name should be clearly labelled with the artist's surname (capitals), first name (lowercase), image number and title of the work. e.g. SMITH_John_01_MonaLisa;
6. An artist statement about the nominated work (maximum 150 words, in Word doc. format only, 2MB);

7. Artist name;
8. Artist biography as an attachment;
9. Entry fee of $33 (Inc. GST) (non-refundable), to be paid online to complete registration;
10. No late entries will be processed, and artworks associated with incomplete entries will not be eligible for TJAP or given consideration of entry.

No correspondence will be entered regarding late, incomplete, or otherwise ineligible entries.

PRESELECTION

All completed entries submitted will be presented for review to a pre-selection panel, consisting of two members of the Courthouse Gallery+Studio team, and an independent panellist.

The Junction Co. reserves the right to revoke an offer to an artist to be a finalist if the artwork differs in any material way from the artwork image submitted by the artist.

Artworks will be shortlisted based on a set of curatorial rationale including concept, work person ship and originality.

The panel's decisions are final, and no correspondence will be entered into.

FINALIST SELECTION

Finalists will be announced 9 April 2024, all entrants will be advised of the outcome via email; finalists will be announced to the public via our website and social media.

All finalists are required to complete the Letter of Acceptance and Consignment Agreement by 16 April 2024.

Finalists using the artwork drop off locations are required to complete the online form by 16 April 2024.

After preselection, the Finalists' Artworks will be hung in the Courthouse Gallery+Studio from 18. May 2024 (Opening Night) until 19 July 2024.

PREPARING THE ARTWORK FOR DELIVERY – FINALISTS ONLY

Finalist artworks must be at the Courthouse Gallery+Studio by 30 April 2024. It is the responsibility of the artist to ensure their artwork is appropriately packaged for transportation to the Courthouse Gallery+Studio. All freight costs incurred are the responsibility of the artist and will not be subsidised by The Junction Co.

The Artwork must be:

1. Suitably framed for handling. A stretched canvas is considered a suitable frame;
2. Have an Artwork Submission Form attached to the back of the Work;
3. Accompanied by a photography of the assembled artwork and clear instructions for its installation if it is a multi-panelled artwork (diptych or triptych);
4. Fitted with suitable D Rings on the back at 100mm from top of artwork for ease of hanging;
5. The artwork must be packed to withstand travel and have:
 - 'The Jury Art Prize 2023'
 - The Artist's full name and address
 - Title of artwork
 - Attached to the packaging material to enable the gallery to re-pack the artwork at the conclusion of the exhibition.
6. The Gallery will prepare a condition report for each work upon receipt. If any defects are found, the artist will be notified prior to hanging.

At the closure of the exhibition, artworks that have not sold by 19. July 2024 can be considered for the Courthouse Gallery+Studio Stockroom collection.

DELIVERY OF ARTWORK

Finalist Artwork must be delivered to:

Courthouse Gallery+Studio,
16 Edgar Street, Port Hedland WA 6721

By 30 April 2024, 4:00 pm (AWST)

Artwork Drop Off Locations 2024

There are three artworks drop off locations available:

- Margaret River, WA 6285
- Broome, WA 6725
- Perth, WA 6000

The Junction Co. will arrange and cover the cost of transporting artworks to the Gallery from the designated Drop-Off location.

The artist is responsible for the cost of transporting artworks back from the Gallery at the conclusion of the exhibition.

Finalists will receive an online form containing available dates and times for drop-off.

All artwork delivered to the gallery or drop-off locations must be securely wrapped in bubble-wrap and placed in cardboard boxes (full boxes only). Please ensure that the packaging is properly labelled.

RETURN OF WORKS

At the end of the exhibition period, unsold works may be considered for the Courthouse Gallery+Studio stockroom collection.

Artists are responsible for both the cost and arrangement of shipping for the return of their artwork by the 2nd of August.

Artists who used the drop-off location will need to arrange and cover the cost of shipping their artwork back to their own places. Drop-off locations are not available for the return of artworks.

The Junction Co. will only facilitate the shipping of artworks that are sold during the exhibition.

FINAL JUDGING

Three independent judges will judge the hung artworks and select prize winners, except for The Jury Prize which will be announced at the end of the exhibition.

The Judges' decisions are final, and no correspondence will be entered into.

EXHIBITION OF ARTWORK

Artworks will be hung at the sole discretion of The Junction Co. and Courthouse Gallery+Studio, and no discussion will be entered into with the finalists.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF WINNER

The winners will be announced at The Jury Art Prize 2024 Exhibition Opening on Saturday, 18 May 2024.

The Jury Prize is selected by members of the public visiting TJAP exhibition online and in person. The winner will be announced by 19 July 2024.

SALE OF ARTWORK

All Artworks must be for sale.

The retail price specified by the Artist must include 40% commission and include GST.

The Junction Co. will sell the Artwork at the price specified on the Entry Form. The Gallery is not responsible for miscalculations by the Artist and/or their Agent.

The Gallery will not discount the Artwork or be liable for agent's fees and/or agent commissions on sales.

Sets of multiples entered as one artwork will not be sold as separate pieces. Artists will be informed of sales at the completion of the exhibition.

The Junction Co. staff will conduct all sale transactions and be responsible for payments to Artists.

Payment for sold artwork will be processed and transferred to the artist's chosen bank account as nominated on the consignment agreement within 21 days of the exhibition conclusion.

COLLECTION OF UNSOLD ARTWORKS

Unsold Artworks at the end of the exhibition can be considered for the Courthouse Gallery+Studio Stockroom collection.

If not considered for the gallery's stockroom collection, unsold Artworks must be collected by the artist on conclusion of the exhibition.

Artists who used the drop-off location will need to arrange and cover the cost of shipping their artwork back to their own places. Drop-off locations are not available for the return of artworks.

The Junction Co will only facilitate the shipping of artworks that are sold during the exhibition.

Artists sending a Courier must have their artwork picked up at the specific staffed times of the Gallery.

The Artists will be fully responsible for the cost of shipping of the unsold Artwork back after the exhibition.

No responsibility will be taken for artworks damaged while in transit to or from the Courthouse Gallery+Studio.

At the close of the exhibition, if a finalist fails to remove an artwork from the Gallery within six weeks of the exhibition's conclusion, at which time the artwork shall be forfeited and become the property of The Junction Co., giving it the right to sell or otherwise dispose of the artwork.

PUBLICATION AND COPYRIGHT

The Junction Co. assumes all entries are original and are the works and/or property of the entrant with all rights granted therein.

The Junction Co. is the sole owner of the information collected from the entry forms and any other information submitted, and will not sell, share or rent the information to others except for the sole purpose of advertising or promoting The Jury Art Prize via social media and The Junction Co. website.

By submitting the entry registration form, the entrant is consenting to the use of their contact information for the purposes of receiving information about the outcome of their entry and all details relating to The Jury Art Prize.

Should the contact information provided change between the time that the entry is submitted, and the results are announced, please contact the Courthouse Gallery+Studio via email at thejuryartprize@thejunctionco.com.au to update your details.

Finalists will be asked to provide a high-resolution file (300dpi, 2MB) of their submission for promotional material or publication.

The finalist agrees that the artwork may be reproduced by the gallery for critical review, archival and/or promotional purposes. The Junction Co. is not liable for any copyright infringement on the part of the entrant and will at all times attribute authorship of the work.

INSTALLATION

The Junction Co.:
